

dispose of all broken and worn or defective property not further suitable for the use of the city, credit the same upon the property accounts of the various officers, agents, or servants charged therewith, and turn the proceeds into the city treasury. They shall report to the city council all property not accounted for, and the person chargeable therewith. Annually, not later than October, the city council shall have prepared and posted in front of the municipal building a financial exhibit of the current and bonded indebtedness of the city, separately stated, and of the receipts and disbursements on all accounts for the preceding fiscal year.

Reports of property not accounted for.

Financial exhibit posted.

ORDINANCES AND POWERS.

SEC. 11. The city shall have power to enact and enforce all ordinances, rules and regulations within the police power of the State deemed needful or convenient for the good government of the city or for the protection and general welfare of persons or property, and to define, prevent, and summarily abate nuisances at its own expense or at the charge of the person or persons causing or suffering same upon their premises. In furtherance of such power and purpose the police jurisdiction of the city to abate nuisance and to make and enforce sanitary regulations shall embrace all territory and inhabitants within one mile of the corporate limits of the city in every direction, and within such bounds and for such purposes the city shall have and possess all the police power of the State and may enforce the observance of its ordinances, rules and regulations by imposing appropriate penalties for violations thereof; but it shall not be compelled to exercise such authority further than may be needful for the protection of health and the preservation of order and good government within the city. The city shall have power to levy, collect, and expend taxes for all purposes consistent with the welfare of the community and not forbidden by law; to make ordinances and regulations for the government of the city; to order, locate and relocate, lay out, construct, repair, maintain, charge, improve, beautify, light and clean streets, alleys, walks, bridges, parks, playgrounds, gardens, cemeteries, and the like; to organize and maintain proper and needful municipal courts inferior to the Supreme Court; to create, organize, regulate, equip, and maintain police and fire departments, and appoint, grade, regulate, and control the officers, members, and employees thereof, and fix and prescribe their terms of office or employment, authority, duties, and compensation; to make and enforce regulations to guard the city against fire; to establish, administer, regulate and control all necessary prisons and reformatories; to regulate and inspect buildings and other structures; to organize, equip, and maintain a health department, having control and direction of all health and sanitary regulations of the city, and fix the duties, powers, authority, terms of office and employment, and compensation of Powers in passing ordinances.

Extent of police jurisdiction.

Taxing power.

Powers as to streets, parks, and other public places.

Municipal courts.

Police and fire departments.

Fire ordinances.

Prisons and reformatories.
Building regulations.
Health department.